

Bias Knit Dish or Face Cloth
©2015 Lindsay Obermeyer

The only gift is a portion of thyself. ~Ralph Waldo Emerson

Oh my goodness! Christmas is in just three weeks! What to make? What to make? You want it to be a nice gift with a sense of thought put into it, no problem. What about a spa package! WHAT?! Those are impossibly expensive. Not if you make it yourself.

I've become addicted to making dish cloths and face cloths. I have to admit, I didn't get the craze for these tiny knit treasures when they first started appearing on Ravelry and such until I received one as a gift from a student. A worsted cotton knit up into a wash cloth is super absorbent and extra soft and add that it is handmade, it's the ultra luxury item. Add it with a delicious smelling soap or bath salt, and you have fabulous spa gift.

You will need:

1 skein of Sugar-n-Cream

#8 knitting needles

scissors

Tapestry needle.

This pattern is for a basic bias face cloth, which is knit from one corner to the next.

Cast on 4 stitches.

Knit one row.

Turn and K2, YO, knit across the rest of the stitches. Repeat from * to* until you have 50 stitches on the needle and what looks like half a triangle. if you want it bigger, that's fine Keep going until desired width is achieved.

Next row* K1, K2tog YO, K2tog, Knit across the rest of the stitches.* Repeat from * to * until you are back to just 4 stitches. You will end up back at just 4 stitches. Bind off final 4 stitches.

Weave in tails.